

...what drives
her
to keep coming back again and again?

we're not quite sure
...but we do know one thing

...she's not the only one!

Crazy Horoscopes can only be described as “horoscopes on drugs”. This parody website was created in late 2004 by an outrageous young British animator and graphics artist from West Yorkshire, England, as part of a personal project. Within 36 hours of its initial launch, Crazy Horoscopes was swamped with literally thousands of visitors, and even today continues to serve bizarre and surreal astrological predictions, written in the author's unrivaled and outrageous style, which have become the unique hallmark of this entertaining website. In late 2005 Crazy Horoscopes also launched a mobile edition of the main website which provided people with cell phones and handheld devices to access some of the eccentric content which is served daily by its “older sister”

“You should certainly sample for yourself the outrageous nature of much that this site contains. It is in my view, sure to make you laugh out loud!”
